

PennState Extension

Sew Much Fun

4-H Sewing Club

Do you like to sew? Or are you interested in learning to sew? This program is for you. You will have “Sew Much Fun” while you learn to sew. In this program we will sew things that are useful, simple and fun to make. We will do some hand sewing and work up to machine sewing. This will be a hand-on program. The program is designed for children 10 and older.

Date: Tuesdays Starting
September 17th

Time: 4- 5:30 pm

Place: Phoenixville Civic Center

Address: 123 Main Street
Corner of Main Street and Hall Street
Phoenixville, PA 19460

4-H is a community of young people across America who are learning leadership, citizenship, and life skills.

*This is a collaborative program sponsored by:
Phoenixville Community That Care,
The Phoenixville Recreation Department and Penn State's Chester County 4-H*

For more detail or to register contact: Toni Stuetz at tmm113@psu.edu or 610-696-3500